Our Unit #159 of the ACBL continues to salute and provide scholarships for those who participate in our teaching program, complete a series of lessons, play in local games, and win one master point. Those who have met these qualifications receive accolades at the Decker Bridge Center and are awarded a one-year's membership to the ACBL. Many thanks go to our outstanding educators: Rex Glimp, Jack Neumann, C.J. Tompkins, and Jay Woods.

2016 Classes

At the October Membership game, Unit 159 hosts the annual Sally Loyd Sportsmanship Award. Sally was the cheerful manager of the Wednesday game, a Board Member, Bronze Life Master, one who represented the best in sportsmanship at the bridge table. She bid aggressively, and when she found her partnership in trouble, she laughed it off and passed on quickly to the next hand. She complimented players who made great decisions against her and commiserated with those who did not. We want to honor a member of our unit who represents the best in sportsmanship.

We are looking forward to honoring someone who represents the best in sportsmanship, an eagerness to play the game well, learn, and study it, and then be gracious when winning or losing. Those who pass on good thoughts to beginners and give them courage to continue this difficult game are super sports; those who do something special to make our bridge club one to which anyone would want return, one who provides a welcoming, cheerful spirit like Sally Loyd's - such a person is one who epitomizes good sportsmanship.
