Rex, FYI, see attached and below. They loved you and want you back! We'll do it again next year if you're up for it. It'll be a piece of cake now that we have the process down.

You can print the above attachment to put in your nomination files.

I think we did a helluva job. Your Peter Peca and Eddie Kantar ideas are front and center in her speech about you. And, I recognize several lines straight out of my nomination form.

I think we scored! ☺

Sure, Nancy. Rex is a winner in every respect. He and his 2 students were there and he'll sit with me and the TOY Committee at our banquet this evening. The audience loved his video and he seemed so happy to meet Barbara Seagram. Both of us told him we think that he should reapply next year. Many of the award winners are 2nd and even 3rd time nominees. The field was jammed with wonderful teachers this year.

Rex's video was perfect in every regard. May I ask if you recorded that with an iPhone? If not, how did you do it? The Committee is seriously considering making a video a required part of the nominations. I'm hesitant because I feel if we require them, then we should be able to instruct them how to make a 3 minute video. One candidate put his video on You Tube and we used a link to project it today.

Here is Rex's presentation and once I hook my phone up, I'll have several pictures of him to send to you. The finalists will be on the front page of the Tournament Bulletin, Saturday, I believe. I'll see if I can send you a link to that also.

Best regards,

Joyce
