LILLIAN SILBERMAN

1929 - 2015 |

Lillian Silberman was born on December 3, 1929 in San Angelo, Texas. Her parents, Joe and Bertha Miller, soon moved to El Paso and established Miller Tailoring and Cleaners. Lillian has been a resident of El Paso ever since. She graduated from El Paso High School, attended UT Austin, and eventually graduated from Texas Western College in the early fifties. Her husband Henry moved here shortly after his service in WWII and they married in 1949. Their marriage lasted 54 years until Henry's death in 2003. They enjoyed many activities together and traveled extensively. Lillian taught school in the EPISD from the early sixties until 1984. Afterwards she volunteered for a number of different organizations including Providence Memorial Hospital, Operation School Bell, and Meals on Wheels, to name a few. Lillian had many interests, but playing bridge and reading were probably her favorites. She also was a supporter of the arts and enjoyed the symphony, opera, as well as ballet, and dance. She was a wonderful friend and was always there for those in need. She was very proud of her Jewish Heritage and participated in a number of organizations. Lillian was an energetic person and a "straight shooter". Her word was her bond, she dotted every "I" and crossed every "T", and she could always be counted on. She had three children: Frank, Carol (Joe McElroy), and Danny (Cindy). Her pride and joy were her three grandchildren: Rachel, Sarah, and Sean. Special thanks to Dr. Bender and her staff, Monte Vista, Norma and Rosalinda, Dr. Dwayne Aboud, El Paso Hospice, and Becky and Art Reaves and their staff at Savannah Suites (adult foster home). John V. McLaughlin, O.F.S., died Sunday at the Sierra Medical Center. He was 87, and a native of Louisville, Kentucky. His brother, Adolph J. "AJ" McLaughlin, survives him. After his time in brotherhood, he pursued many interests. One of them was bridge (he was a Master Level player,) and he met Evelyne playing the game. They were openly, madly in love, from the moment they met. They loved sports, travel, horse racing, socializing and working in their community and congregation. Rarely was one without the other. John first volunteered and then joined the staff of the Radford School, teaching Latin. He was a devoted minister at St. Patrick's Cathedral. He was one of only two 2013

He volunteered at Hospice of El Paso from 1988-2008 and was named Volunteer of the Year. He played "old timers" softball until just a few years ago. He was a loving brother and uncle to his Kentucky family, a loving friend to Evelyne's Arizona family and to all he knew in his own El Paso community, and a kind companion to his little dog, Canala. His examples of faith and service were exemplary. He will be missed and loved forever.
